

EDITORIAL

Dear Readers,

On behalf of editorial boards, I would like to express my gratitude for inaugural issue of Global Journal Dermatology and Venereology as editor-in-chief.

We welcome any type of contribution (case report, research, review, clinical study etc.) of dermatology and venereology such as allergy, psoriasis, acne, hairs, cutaneous infection, tumors, bullous diseases and so on.

Actually, there have been many significant buried contributions which are not accepted for publication.

Therefore, our policy is to aid to support these articles for publication with peer review.

Yours sincerely,

Ichiro Kurokawa

Editor-in-Chief
